SUPERVISOR BIDDLE PRAISES LOCAL WEEKEND EVENTS

Milwaukee, WI – Milwaukee County Supervisor Eyon Biddle Sr. is very pleased with the outcome of three local events that were held last weekend in Milwaukee.

The 17th Annual Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Back to School Festival (founded by State Representative Elizabeth Coggins when she served on the County Board), the Milwaukee Community Journal's 35th Anniversary Banquet, and African World Festival were all held Saturday. Supervisor Biddle attended and remarked that they were successful, peaceful, classy events for the Milwaukee County community.

“With all the recent rhetoric about the ‘deteriorating African-American culture’ in this city, I saw some awesome events this weekend. They really showed the haters that there are many positive things going on in the black community that we can all be proud of,” Supervisor Biddle said. “Kudos to all those who worked tirelessly for months organizing these great events for the benefit of both youth and adults.”
